

Grape Hunter Reviews
Dr Plonk 5th June 2012

Chateau Lanessan Delbois-Bouteiller Medoc, 2004

Typically weighted left bank wine from the Medoc region focusing on Merlot. A pleasing Ruby colour with the browning edges of an aged wine. Plums and dark fruits and cherries abound on the nose with secondary influences of rose petals and cinnamon. The ageing, but not tired fruit, makes this a drink now wine with a full palate and receding tannins. Great with rare grilled lamb back strap and tomato jam.
